Essay Questions

41. Describe the differences between a bench trial and a trial by jury?

A bench trial is a trial where the judge decided guilt or innocence. A trial by jury is where 12 members of the jury decide guilt or innocence.

Difficulty: Easy

42. Explain the construction of the United States Constitution and specifically describe the fourth article and the concepts it recognizes?

The U.S. Constitution is consists of 7 articles and 27 amendments. The first 3 articles define the 3 major branches of government: the executive, judicial, and legislative branches. The fourth article defines the concepts of "full faith and credit" and "privileges and immunities". The full faith and credit concept requires that states "recognize" the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of other states. The privileges and immunities concept more or less requires states to treat the citizens from other states the same as their own. For example, it would be unconstitutional for California to forbid citizens of New York from using its public beaches.

Difficulty: Hard

43. If a trial will be held in the federal court system, and subsequently appealed, explain the types and names of the courts your case will be heard in.

U.S. District Courts, of which there are 100 districts, some with multiple court houses, then the case would be appealed to a U.S. Circuit Court of Appeal, of which there are 11 and two D.C District Courts, then the case would go to the U.S. Supreme Court, which only hears cases that it agrees to review.
