

TEST ITEM FILE

Jennifer Rosti

Roanoke College

The Humanities

Third Edition

Volume I

Henry Sayre

Oregon State University

Boston Columbus Indianapolis New York San Francisco Upper Saddle River
Amsterdam Cape Town Dubai London Madrid Milan Munich Paris Montréal Toronto
Delhi Mexico City São Paulo Sydney Hong Kong Seoul Singapore Taipei Tokyo

© 2015, 2012, 2008 by Pearson Education, Inc.
Upper Saddle River, New Jersey 07458

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise, without the prior written permission of the publisher. Printed in the United States of America.

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

ISBN 10: 0.205-97773.1

ISBN 13: 978-0.205-97773

Contents

Chapter 1	1
Chapter 2	6
Chapter 3	11
Chapter 4	16
Chapter 5	22
Chapter 6	28
Chapter 7	34
Chapter 8	39
Chapter 9	45
Chapter 10	51
Chapter 11	57
Chapter 12	64
Chapter 13	70
Chapter 14	77
Chapter 15	84
Chapter 16	92
Chapter 17	98
Chapter 18	106
Chapter 19	113
Chapter 20	120

Chapter 1: The Rise of Culture: From Forest to Farm

Multiple-Choice Questions

1. Paleolithic cave paintings may have been intended to do all of the following EXCEPT
 - a. serve as magic charms to ensure successful hunting.
 - b. function as lunar calendars, predicting seasonal migration of the animals.
 - c. conjure game by depicting it.
 - d. commemorate the dead buried in the caves.Answer: d page 4 LO: 1.1
2. Why are the Chauvet animal paintings probably NOT associated with the hunt?
 - a. Most of the animals painted on the walls were imaginary.
 - b. Less than half of the animals painted on the walls are believed to have been hunted.
 - c. Few of the animals painted on the walls were domesticated.
 - d. Most of the animals painted on the walls were shown killing humans.Answer: b page 4 LO: 1.1
3. Why did the Chauvet painters utilize perspectival drawing?
 - a. to convey a sense of three-dimensional space
 - b. to demonstrate allegiance to the Mother Goddess
 - c. to foster a sense of communal history
 - d. to increase contrasts in values and colorAnswer: a page 5 LO: 1.1
4. Which of the following statements reflects the changed thinking regarding prehistoric art due to the discovery of Chauvet Cave?
 - a. Art progressed from awkward beginnings to increased sophistication.
 - b. The Paleolithic art in each cave probably was created by a single person.
 - c. Art did not necessarily evolve in a linear progression from its early days in prehistory.
 - d. Paleolithic cave art was a form of graffiti created by young people.Answer: c page 5 LO: 1.1
5. Among prehistoric paintings, what is distinctive about the painting of a bird-headed man, a bison, and a rhinoceros in Lascaux Cave?
 - a. It includes a representation of a large animal.
 - b. It is one of the few cave paintings to depict a human.
 - c. It is painted on limestone.
 - d. It demonstrates a rejection of naturalistic representation.Answer: b page 5 LO: 1.1

6. Why do Paleolithic female figurines vastly outnumber those representing males?
- Males were likely the carvers.
 - Males probably outnumbered females.
 - Females played a central role in the culture.
 - All prehistoric gods were female.
- Answer: c page 6 LO: 1.1
7. Venus of Willendorf's original red color is suggestive of
- sacrifice.
 - menses.
 - autumn.
 - shamanism.
- Answer: b page 6 LO: 1.1
8. Implying a community's sense of historical continuity, what was buried beneath some of the Neolithic Çatalhöyük houses?
- human bodies and skulls
 - fertility goddess statuettes
 - boar tusks, vulture skulls, and weasel teeth
 - large terracotta heads of leaders
- Answer: a page 8 LO: 1.2
9. Why did the Neolithic era witness increased pottery creation?
- More permanent settlements could support artists.
 - Tending crops provided more free time for art than hunting did.
 - Neolithic people had learned to control fire for use in kilns.
 - Fragile pottery was impractical for Paleolithic hunter-gatherers.
- Answer: d page 11 LO: 1.2
10. Why can the potter's wheel be considered one of the first mechanical and technological breakthroughs in history?
- It allowed artisans to produce uniformly shaped vessels in short periods of time.
 - It provided an alternative to creating vessels by casting metal.
 - It enabled clay to be fired to a hot enough temperature to be hardened.
 - It created an adequately smooth surface for pots to be painted.
- Answer: a page 12 LO: 1.2
11. Neolithic Nok heads have an artistry based upon
- animal imagery.
 - burial masks.
 - woven patterns.
 - abstract geometrical shapes.
- Answer: d page 13 LO: 1.2

12. According to the most recent discoveries, Stonehenge was constructed as a
- a. sacrificial altar.
 - b. royal residence.
 - c. burial ground.
 - d. marketplace.

Answer: c page 16 LO: 1.2

13. What is the most basic architectural technique for spanning space?
- a. post-and-lintel
 - b. corbel
 - c. cromlech
 - d. menhir

Answer: a page 18 LO: 1.2

14. What can myths tell about their cultures?
- a. place of origin
 - b. views and beliefs
 - c. social hierarchy
 - d. form of government

Answer: b page 18 LO: 1.3

15. The Anasazi built their kivas with a small, round hole in the floor to
- a. represent a belief that their ancestors emerged from the depths of the Earth.
 - b. collect what little rain fell in the parched desert.
 - c. demonstrate a belief that evil spirits could be flushed into the depths of the Earth.
 - d. dispose of human waste and other refuse.

Answer: a page 21 LO: 1.3

16. In the Zuni emergence tale, the Pueblo people originated in
- a. clay mounds formed by Himura, the potter goddess.
 - b. the womb of Mother Earth.
 - c. tears falling from the Sun Father's eyes.
 - d. the Spruce Tree House

Answer: b page 21 LO: 1.3

17. Which of the following beliefs is NOT reflected in Pueblo emergence tales?
- a. The forces of nature are inhabited by living spirits.
 - b. Humans can communicate with natural spirits.
 - c. Humans can take on animal form if they offer proper sacrifices.
 - d. Nature's behavior can be compared to human behavior.

Answer: c page 22 LO: 1.3

18. Japanese emperors claimed divinity as

- a. heads of the Shinto religion.
- b. direct descendants of the sun goddess.
- c. authors of the Kojiki.
- d. Manifestations of future kami.

Answer: b page 22 LO: 1.3

19. The Shinto main sanctuary at Ise is always built of wood to
- a. demonstrate reverence for the natural world and tradition.
 - b. avoid the cost of stone.
 - c. deter the kami.
 - d. effectively insulate against a cold climate

Answer: a page 23 LO: 1.3

20. The Ise shrine is razed and then rebuilt every 20 years to
- a. prevent deterioration of its materials.
 - b. ritually celebrate renewal.
 - c. demonstrate disinterest in the material world.
 - d. symbolize the lifespan of the goddess Amaterasu.

Answer: b page 23 LO: 1.3

21. In prehistoric times, communication with the spiritual world is thought to have been largely conducted in
- a. groves.
 - b. semi-permanent huts.
 - c. river valleys.
 - d. Caves.

Answer: d page 24 LO: 1.4

22. The Olmec's giant mounds where the priests dwelled are thought to have possibly represented
- a. volcanoes.
 - b. pregnant wombs,
 - c. mountains.
 - d. female breasts.

Answer: a page 24 LO: 1.4

23. Why might the Olmec have carved their leaders' heads in colossal size?
- a. to intimidate potential attackers away from their sacred sites
 - b. to show the leaders as larger than life, like the gods
 - c. to provide supports for their sacred sites' roofs
 - d. to serve as markers for the leaders' graves

Answer: b page 24 LO: 1.4

24. What do the Hopewell culture's elaborate burials tell about them?
- a. They considered bear teeth sacred.
 - b. They created beautiful works of pottery.
 - c. They believed in reincarnation of the dead.

d. They had an extensive trade network.

Answer: d page 25 LO: 1.4

25. The Great Serpent Mound differs from most Hopewell mounds in its

- a. spiral shape and raised embankments.
- b. alignment with the sun at the equinoxes.
- c. absence of burial sites.
- d. mysterious abandonment.

Answer: c page 26 LO: 1.4

26. With what astronomical event might the Great Serpent Mound be associated?

- a. the summer solstice
- b. Halley's Comet
- c. a solar eclipse
- d. alignment of the planets

Answer: b page 26 LO: 1.4

Matching

- | | |
|-------------------------|-----------------------|
| 27. Chauvet Cave | a. Scotland |
| 28. Venus of Willendorf | b. Gulf of Mexico |
| 29. Stonehenge | c. Ohio |
| 30. Nok | d. American Southwest |
| 31. Skara Brae | e. England |
| 32. Anasazi | f. Austria |
| 33. Olmec | g. France |
| 34. Great Serpent Mound | h. Nigeria |

Answers: 27-g (LO: 1.1), 28-f (LO: 1.1), 29-e (LO: 1.2), 30-h (LO: 1.2), 31-a (LO: 1.2), 32-d (LO: 1.3), 33-b (LO: 1.4), 34-c (LO: 1.4)

Essay Questions

- 35. Discuss the implications of Chauvet Cave's revelations about art not developing linearly and early Paleolithic artists not being as primitive as we previously thought. LO: 1.1
- 36. Examine the Paleolithic female figurines—the Laussel Woman Holding an Animal Horn, the Venus of Willendorf—as “images of beauty in a cold, hostile world.” LO: 1.1
- 37. Describe the picture of Paleolithic daily life that the human artifacts provide. LO: 1.1
- 38. Discuss the view of society that construction of the megalithic dolmens, Carnac, and Stonehenge reveal. LO: 1.2
- 39. Explain the reasons pottery making facilitated advancement for Neolithic agriculture-based people. LO: 1.2
- 40. The indigenous Japanese religion of Shinto shares much with Pueblo religions. Compare the two on their emergence tales and their general beliefs about the gods and nature. LO: 1.3

41. Describe the afterlife beliefs that the mound burials of the Hopewell people present. LO: 1.4
42. Explore what the colossal heads guarding the Olmec ceremonial centers seem to tell us about that culture's sacred sites. LO: 1.4
43. Think of a current myth—a story grounded in observed experience that a culture assumes is true—and consider what this myth reveals about our society. LO: 1.3